With the First U. S. Army, Oct. 5—(P)—American tanks, advancing more than a mile, captured Beggen today. Beggen is three miles inside German territory from the nearest tip of the Dutch border, and its capture placed American forces across the Aachen-Gelkenkirchen highway and within a mile of the main highway to Gladbach.

By JAMES M. LONG
London, Oct. 5—(P)—American armor and infantry plunged into a widening hole in the Siegfried Line near Ubach today. Masses of artillery, including 10-inch guns, tore many Germans from their defenses.

The Germans battled fiercely, rushing up reinforcements and bringing to bear every possible gun in an effort to prevent the crumbling of the entire Siegfried Line north of Aachen. Already the original West Wall had been pierced and the Americans were attacking with fresh energy the tank traps, earthworks and pillboxes hastily erected behind it.

To the north, heavy fighting flared along the British Nijmegen-Arnhem corridor. Infantry attacked in several sectors, gaining a mile in an eastward advance and several miles in a northwesterly direction.

To the south the American Third Army of Lt. Gen. George S. Patton was engaged in a grim fight atop Fort Driant, a key stronghold southwest of Metz. Germans had holed up in the concrete fastnesses of an underground labyrinth.

"Tanks, guns, infantry and supplies are pouring through the gap in the Siegfried Line to put mounting pressure on the enemy."

Lt. Gen. Sir Miles C. Dempsey's main attack eastward was launched on a six-mile front from south of Arnhem and only about two miles from the famous bridge for which the British First Airborne Division had battled in vain.

The counterattack, first of the Nazi defensive blows to be led with armor, blunted itself against the American lines near Herbach, a mile and a half south of Ubach, which is at the center of the two-mile-deep wedge into Germany.

Bricker Bids For Missouri Votes

Ottumwa, Ia., Oct. 5—(P)—Gov. John W. Bricker declared today that the political power of the presidency has become so great that the tenure should be limited in order to develop leadership for the republic.

The Republican vice presidential nominee said that President Roosevelt, "by his tactics of subterfuge," had "kept out of the running all other possible candidates in the Democratic party."

Last night Bricker spoke at St. Louis in a bid for the 15 electoral votes of Missouri, home of his Democratic rival, Senator Harry S. Truman. There he appealed for a "sincere, straightforward and truthful" campaign, devoid of "cynicism, innuendo, flippant remarks and synthetic humor."

BALIKPAPAN OIL DEPOTS AGAIN RAIDED

FOOCHOW IN DANGER

By LEONARD MILLMAN
Associated Press War Editor

Tokyo radio indicated today that Allied bombers are wasting no time in their long-distance campaign to knock out the vital oil producing center at Balikpapan, Borneo.

A Domei (news agency) broadcast reported 40 four-engine bombers struck Tuesday in the second mass raid at Balikpapan. Sixty Liberators struck the first heavy blow three days previously. Only yesterday MacArthur promised this important source of Japanese oil and aviation gasoline would be pounded into uselessness, "drastically and immediately" curtailing Japan's ability to fight in the air or on the sea.

American submarines, continuing their daring forays into Japan's shipping lifelines, have destroyed another 11 enemy vessels, the Navy announced today.

Japan's newest invasion, Chungking announced, has driven to the outskirts of Foochow, last large Chinese-held port on the central China coast.

In the central China offensive, which has cost the 14th U. S. Air Force six advanced bases in recent months, Japanese columns captured the rail town of Hingun, 51 miles northeast of Kweilin, and broke into Changning, which had been holding up the left flank of the advance.

A delayed dispatch from Kweilin, dated October 2, reported a handful of Americans were waiting to finish demolishing their base there when the Japanese got too close. The enemy was then, 14 miles away.

In southwest Burma the Japanese apparently were preparing to abandon their Tiddim base. Large fires were burning in the city, indicating the Japanese were destroying the supplies they couldn't take with them.

Japanese broadcasts reported an American destroyer exploded and

No Plans For Partial Delay In Demobilizing

Washington, Oct. 5—(P)—Secretary of War Stimson today termed "absolutely untrue" reports that the war department would delay partial demobilization in order to ease the job situation.

The statement, to a news conference was in reply to a reporter's question that "there has been some comment to the effect that the war department will delay its partial demobilization in order to ease the job situation. Is that correct?"

Stimson replied with an emphatic "no" and then added: "There are only two things that will affect the speed of demobilization of the army. One is the military necessity of retaining sufficient troops in service to quickly and permanently defeat Japan."

"The other is available shipping. Except for these two limitations, the army is arranging the return of those eligible for demobilization as quickly as possible."

Warm Sunshine Greets Early Birds At Second Series Game

Sportsman's Park, St. Louis, Oct. 5—(P)—Warm sunshine greeted the early birds who filled approximately one fourth of the 7,000 unreserved seats four hours before game time today for the second of the All-St. Louis World Series after an early morning downpour had left puddles on the uncovered fringes of the field.

Luke Sewell's Browns, dubbed the "hitless wonders" after beating Mort Cooper on two hits yesterday, rekindled the enthusiasm that swept through this city when they clinched the pennant on the last day of the season.

There was more noise in the uncovered stands today after Brownie supporters had shaken off

New Postmaster At Oil City Unnamed

Oil City, Oct. 5—(P)—Postmaster John E. Hahn, whose removal from office has been advised by the Civil Service Commission, which said he violated regulations forbidding political activity by civil service employees, today awaited the naming of an acting postmaster by the postoffice department.

Hahn said he received word yesterday that he would be notified when the new postmaster is selected.

The charges brought against him were made, Hahn said, by Democratic political leaders of the county. He added he had fully denied them at a hearing before the commission.

Fifth Driving Ahead Against Violent Fire

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK
Rome, Oct. 5—(P)—U. S. Fifth Army troops drove a mile forward against violent fire from reinforced and hastily entrenched Germans yesterday on the bitterly contested road to Bologna to within 14 miles of that great communications center.

The Doughboys seized a ridge just north of La Selva, five miles east of Highway 65 at Loiano. The Americans gained new positions just short of Monte Morosino on the Imola road, three miles north of Castel Del Rio. On their left flank, where the Germans poured in all types of artillery fire, they took the town of Cuvola and Quinzano, east of Loiano.

To the east, the British Eighth Army advanced to a point up to two miles northeast of Castagno, (Turn to Page Eleven)

Strike Suspends Rochester Papers

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 5—(P)—The Rochester Times-Union, a Gannett newspaper, suspended publication today when 85 printers failed to report for work in a dispute which the management termed a difference in contract interpretation and the union said was a "lockout."

The employees, members of Union 15, Rochester Typographical Union (AFL), joined 92 Democrat and Chronicle Printers, members of the same union, who left that paper's composing room last night after discharge of a union member. The Democrat and Chronicle was not published this morning.

Erwin R. Davenport, general manager of the Rochester Gannett newspapers, said the printers had "differed with the management in interpreting rules."

NEW CAMPAIGN PLAN

New York, Oct. 5—(P)—A "double vote for Dewey Day" will be observed Oct. 25, sponsored by the women's division of the Republican National Committee. An announcement said 5,000,000 women workers would seek "an extra vote" for the Dewey-Bricker presidential ticket.

Maquis Force Wars Against DeGaulle Rule

Washington, Oct. 5—(P)—A Spanish Maquis force of 40,000 men, defiant of General Charles De Gaulle's Paris government, is reported by diplomats here to be in control of a corner of France adjoining the Spanish frontier.

The situation, which reportedly worries the Spanish government, is regarded by American officials as more fantastic than official.

By and large these officials consider that France is now under effective control of the Paris administration and that it is a broadly representative regime rather than a one-man affair. They are reported to be urging its recognition as a government.

The final decision on recognition must be made by President Roosevelt.

Until recently General De Gaulle is said to have made it clear that he was not pressing for the immediate withdrawal of the Allied military supervision exercised by (Turn to Page Eleven)

New York To Have Look At GOP Nominee

By JACK BELL
Albany, N. Y., Oct. 5—(P)—New York City voters will get their first real look at Thomas E. Dewey as the Republican presidential candidate next week if the governor carries out tentative plans to make two appearances here, one on Sunday and another on Thursday.

Dewey plans to leave Charleston, W. Va., immediately after his Saturday night speech, reaching New York City Sunday in time for the annual Pulaski day parade of the city's Polish-American population, a march that usually finds upwards of 50,000 persons in line. He is expected to be in the relieving stand.

Returning to Albany thereafter, the governor now plans to go back to register and to view the annual Columbus Day parade involving a large turnout of New York City's Italian population. This parade up Fifth avenue is sponsored for the first time this year by the city administration, headed by Mayor Fiore L. La Guardia.

Although Paul Lockwood, the governor's secretary, said that definite arrangements had not been made Dewey may address the Columbus Day marchers, as he has in the past. It was explained that any such address would be non-political in nature.

LIVENGOOD PREDICTS STATE WILL GO G.O.P.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 5—(P)—Pennsylvania is "going Republican" this year by at least 250,000 votes, William S. Livengood, Jr., Pennsylvania state secretary of internal affairs, predicted last night.

Referring to President Roosevelt's recent speech as "Franklin the First's vaudeville show," Livengood declared that the nation wanted to hear about the progress of the war and then heard "him talk about Fala."

NAZI POSITION AT BELGRADE IS UNTENABLE

Russian Armored Spearheads Advance to Within Less Than Nine Miles of Yugoslav Capital

GAINING IN LITHUANIA

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Moscow, Oct. 5—(P)—Russian armored spearheads advanced today upon the rail junction of Pancevo, a city of 22,000 less than nine miles northeast of Belgrade, and front dispatches indicated that the Yugoslav capital may fall in a matter of hours.

The German position in all of the Belgrade area was declared untenable. The Russians have a big encircling maneuver ready to put into effect if the enemy tries to dig in.

Closing in from the captured towns of Banatska Kraljevice, 15 miles northeast of Belgrade, and Debilyacha, 18 miles to the north, Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's forces cleared two rail lines leading to Pancevo and aimed toward cutting the main railway running northwest from the capital—major remaining rail escape route for the bulk of the German forces on the Balkan peninsula.

Led by Yugoslav partisan scouts, Malinovsky's troops advanced 27 miles in 24 hours in taking Debilyacha. The official Russian communiqué described it as "a headlong advance."

A companion Russian offensive southwest of Turun Severin and 100 miles southeast of Belgrade, however, ran into stiffer resistance. This resistance was reported faltering under the blows of Russians in front and partisan detachments deep in the rear.

London, Oct. 5—(P)—Russian troops in Lithuania have mounted an all-out offensive west of Siauliai, Col. Ernst Von Hammer, the German news agency's military commentator, said today in a broadcast.

The German report said 12 to 14 Russian divisions attacked in the Siauliai area, 80 miles north of the East Prussian city of Tilsit, with the help of four tank corps. The Germans announced earlier that seven Russian divisions of perhaps 100,000 men had invaded the big Estonian island of Saare (Osel) at the mouth of the Gulf of Riga during the morning.

DETROIT MAINTENANCE WORKERS WILL RETURN

Detroit, Oct. 5—(P)—Approximately 8,000 maintenance workers whose strike action yesterday tied up or impaired war production in 33 Detroit area plants voted today to return to work on afternoon shifts, according to United Automobile Workers (CIO) spokesmen.

The action was announced following a meeting of officials of the executive board of the UAW-CIO and representatives of local unions making up the Maintenance, Construction and Powerhouse Council, (UAW-CIO).

The strike, which had begun to spread again this morning, had made more than 50,000 workers idle through plant closings and assembly line interruptions.

Thirty Are Indicted In Philly Probe

Philadelphia, Oct. 5—(P)—Bench warrants for 30 operating employees of the Philadelphia Transportation Company indicted by a federal grand jury that investigated Philadelphia's six-day transit strike in August, were held in abeyance today by direction of District Judge Guy K. Bard.

The men were indicted yesterday on charges of violating the War Labor Board disputes act and bail was fixed at $500 each. The maximum penalty upon conviction is one year in jail, a $5,000 fine, or both.

Completing its investigation of the Philadelphia Transportation Company work stoppage, the jury said "union feeling was rampant among the leaders" and there had been antagonism between four different labor organizations "but chiefly between members of the former employees union and of the new Transport Workers Union (CEIO)."

Army Casualties On All Fronts 351,293

Washington, Oct. 5—(P)—Secretary of War Stimson reported today that army casualties on all fronts were 351,293 September 21. The latest navy casualty figure of 65,792 brought the total for the armed services to 417,085.

The campaign in Italy, Stimson said, has cost 82,111 ground force casualties.

President To Deliver Radio Talk Tonight

Washington, Oct. 5—(P)—President Roosevelt will make his second out-and-out political speech of the fourth-term campaign tonight, a radio address beamed to Democratic party workers and aimed primarily at getting out a full strength vote in November.

There is considerable capital speculation whether the president will use the occasion to carry the campaign fight to his opponent, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, as he did in his opening address Sept. 23.

Mr. Roosevelt will speak for about 20 minutes on a radio program arranged by the Democratic National Committee. The broadcast, starting at 10 p. m., will be carried by the Columbia and Mutual networks.

Democratic Chairman Robert E. Hannegan said tonight's broadcast would be directed to meetings of party workers in 125,000 voting areas throughout the country. Ten party workers are supposed to listen in each district and, after the broadcast, each will be given a list of registered voters and be charged with the responsibility of getting them to vote.

Hannegan and Mrs. Charles W. Tillet, assistant Democratic national chairman, will appear on the program with the president.

Simple Funeral Is Planned For Smith

New York, Oct. 5—(P)—The body of Alfred E. Smith will lie in state at St. Patrick's Cathedral from 2 p. m. tomorrow until funeral services at 11 a. m. Saturday.

The 70-year-old "happy warrior,"—four times governor of New York state and Democratic presidential nominee in 1928—who died yesterday of lung congestion and acute heart disease, will be buried in his family plot at Queens Calvary cemetery.

The Most Rev. J. Francis A. McIntyre, auxiliary bishop of New York, administered the last rites of the Catholic church to Mr. Smith and will celebrate the solemn pontifical mass of requiem. Services will be simple in keeping with Mr. Smith's wishes, the family said. There will be no honorariums. The family requested no flowers be sent.

Meanwhile, messages of condolence were received and tributes paid by President Roosevelt, Governor Thomas E. Dewey, former President Hoover, Smith's 1928 presidential opponent, and many other leaders.

TWO DIE ON HIGHWAY

Greensburg, Oct. 5—(P)—Two steelworkers were killed and two others injured when their automobile plunged into the rear of a moving truck, a mile and a half east of the Irwin interchange of the Pennsylvania turnpike last night.

Tricky Devices Used By Nazi War Lords To Salvage Loot

By MAX HALL
Washington, Oct. 5—(P)—German embassies in neutral countries were reported today to be "loaded down" with gold, securities and currency with large staffs working full time to put the stuff—including loot from occupied countries—under cover.

Some of the tricks being used by German leaders to conceal their financial resources were disclosed after the state department announced that the United States and Britain have asked neutrals to deny the enemy protection for his loot.

Washington sources said: That the German ruling clique is salting away assets not only for its personal salvation but as a war chest to keep underground organizations going after the war.

That in concealing funds, the Germans are extending their power in foreign industry.

That the German leaders may know they are beaten militarily but they have utterly no intention of losing the war economically.

That Germans recently arriving in neutral countries are cocky. They tell the local industrialists the war won't last much longer, but "it doesn't matter." They boast that German industrialists were better off than those in England and the United States after the last war, and it will be so again.

These Germans are claiming that citizens in neutral countries who cooperate with them in developing the industries of those countries will profit too.

Heiress To Testify In Own Defense

Salinas, Calif., Oct. 5—(P)—Appearance of attractive Mrs. Frances Andrews, 37-year-old heiress to a Pennsylvania oil fortune, on the witness stand today is expected to bring to a close testimony in her trial on a charge of murder of 19-year-old Jay Lovett.

Defense attorney Leo Friedman told Superior Judge H. C. Jochen yesterday he planned to wind up the defense today and indicated Mrs. Andrews would be the final witness.

Frank Andrews, husband of the defendant, yesterday told the jury of eight women and four men that he and Mrs. Andrews regarded young Lovett "as a son." He said the youth had been "welcome at our home as any time, and that was right up to the time of his death."

Andrews, recently honorably discharged as an army corporal, was at military camp when the shooting occurred.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

Van Wyck Brooks has long been acknowledged as one of the most distinguished American literary historians of our day. Now he has followed his brilliant surveys of American literary origins—"The Flowering of New England" and "New England: Indian Summer"—with a third volume, "The World of Washington Irving." "The World of Washington Irving," like "New England: Indian Summer," is a Book-of-the-Month Club selection.

To Van Wyck Brooks, the literature of a period is not something that can be picked up and set aside in a neat cubbyhole by itself. It is intimately bound up with the customs of the people and social conditions of times. Thus his new book is particularly rewarding for Mr. Brooks' penetrating analysis of Washington Irving's world—a period in which American writers first became conscious of their heritage.

"Mr. Brooks' book is far more than a life of Irving," says Henry Seidel Canby in the current issue of the Book-of-the-Month Club News. "It is a pictorial biography of our country in its first half century as a republic. . . Here in this book the great figures appear, always freshly treated and sometimes with high originality."

Van Wyck Brooks has read some 800 to 900 volumes in preparation for each of his books—not only the important works of the period, but the half-forgotten, dull ones as well. . . He begins his reading early each morning with his six o'clock cup of tea. After his regular breakfast, which he has at a more civilized hour, he retires to his study to write. Afternoons and evenings are usually devoted to more reading and note-taking. . . "The Flowering of New England" took four years of work.

From a British Tommy, says Tom Treanor, in "One Damn Thing After Another," he got the warmest, most understandable description he's ever heard of the British soldier's love for tea. "It's when you get moody that you need it," the Tommy said. "Take when the mail comes around. You haven't had a letter for two months. They distribute the mail and everyone gets his letter but you don't. You get moody and there's only one thing to do. You start your fire and you get crackin' on brewin' up some tea. Then you feels better."

END OF SLAVERY

According to Associated Press dispatches appearing in the Times-Mirror the past week General Eisenhower has issued two "emancipation proclamations" since our armies entered Germany. One was his appeal to the impressed foreign workers in the Reich to begin their fight against the Nazis. The other was his statement of the conditions of military government in conquered German territory.

Both of these proclaim a release from slavery. And both give promise of a slow and painful fulfillment. For the slave labor seized and transported from occupied nations, General Eisenhower's summons brings the prospect of suffering and death to many. But suffering and death are not new to these unhappy victims of war.

Now these sacrifices will be for the sake of an open blow, if not a strong one. Before, their weapons were the slowdown and sabotage. Now liberation is at least close enough for them to rise up, and to harass and divert the Gestapo. After all, there are an estimated 11 million foreign workers in Germany. Their very number, and the scores they have to settle, must strike fear to many Nazi hearts.

The general's other proclamation offers freedom to a nation of apparently willing slaves. It is a severe document, as it should be.

It remains to be seen whether the occupation will invite spying and sabotage, and whether the enforcement of this proclamation will effectively prevent it. After all, we are not liberating France now, but conquering Germany. However, the Germans are not the French.

A guess, based on past performance and made far from the scene, is that there will be no such resistance from the German population as the Nazis encountered in the occupied lands. If the ordinary German had a fierce will to defend his way of life under Hitler, the Eisenhower proclamation would only make him more cautiously determined. But it is doubtful that the Fuehrer's way of life looks as inviting as it did even a year ago.

So it may be that these rules of military occupation will turn out to be less a defensive weapon than a psychological one. Strict regulations, hard discipline, swift punishment, these are things that the acquiescent Germans have been used to.

PLEA FOR SOLDIER GUARDS

We divert from our usual policy of consigning to the wastebasket anonymous communications to print the following signed by "Some Interested Warrenites" because it calls attention to a project which may find sympathy and support from readers generally. It is hoped that those responsible for the letter will make themselves known so that others interested may cooperate with them in any action that may be taken:

October 3, 1944.

To the Editor:
What has happened to the kind hearted citizens of Warren? There has been a lot of talk about doing our bit to help the boys in service, but now that we have the opportunity to really do something, talk has subsided and action for this cause is practically non-existent.

Warren offers no recreation or service organization for the soldiers who have just been stationed near our community.

Lack of transportation for these soldiers to either Sheffield or Warren necessitates a hike of at least five miles and only the hope for a ride the rest of the way.

Surely with the willingness of the young people to plan and operate a service club, under the sponsorship of merchants and residents, we could show these boys how much we appreciate all they are doing for us.

We all hope our loved ones are being received with kindness and hospitality wherever they are stationed—couldn't we all work together and do as much for these boys who are away from home? Let Warren be remembered as a friendly town.

"Some Interested Warrenites."

Every citizen old enough to vote should be interested in the reminder that the registration office at the court house is open every day this week from nine a. m., until nine p. m., for the purpose of receiving registrations or change of address. Incidentally Monday will be the last day to file change of address to qualify to vote at the presidential election next month. It is not only a privilege but should be considered a paramount duty on the part of every adult to be qualified to vote at the forthcoming election. Better make sure that you will not be challenged at the polls.

Chapter 26

WHEN Thorny came in with Susan and Julie there was no display of dramatics. Erich was sitting there across the Constable's littered desk in the sharp glare of a naked electric light bulb suspended from the ceiling and shaded by a disc of yellow cardboard. The color was drained from his face. His eyes glistened by a diaphanous film, his clothes hung on him dripping, his hair was matted, his face grimy. The brief smile that he turned on them was grim but courageous.

Julie walked over and put her hand on his shoulder. It was a simple gesture but it seemed to transfer some of her strength to him. His face perceptibly brightened.

The Constable dragged up some old straight-backed chairs and formed them into a semicircle. When everyone was seated he said, "Now, start from the beginning and tell us exactly what happened."

Erich spoke unhesitatingly and looked the Constable coolly in the eye. "I worked late at the factory," he said. "When I got home around twelve I put my car in the garage and decided to walk down to the boathouse. I had painted my rowboat with a new waterproof paint. I've been experimenting with and was anxious to know how long it took to dry."

The Constable nodded sagely. "Then I started down the driveway and took the cut-off to the old road that leads from the lake to the highway."

ERICH continued: "While I was walking along I heard a car coming pretty fast but I couldn't see any headlights. It came around a bend in the road and I jumped out of the way. When the driver saw me he turned on a powerful spotlight and blinded me so I couldn't see what kind of a car it was or anyone in it."

"A spotlight, eh?" the Constable mused. "Well, I reckon half the cars in town have spotlights since Lockhart had that special sale on them at the hardware store." He gestured to Erich to continue.

"When I got down to the boathouse my boat was gone."

Out across the lake I saw the boat. Or at least part of it. It was about half submerged and wasn't more than a hundred yards from shore. I waded out to it and found the dead man tied to the seat."

"Seemed kinda funny to me," the Constable said, "that you wouldn't stop to take off your clothes before you jumped into the lake. Why were you in such a big hurry?"

Erich flushed a little. "Because the boat was sinking and I knew it was going to be hard enough to drag it in half filled with water without letting it sink completely."

"This man you found in the boat. You didn't recognize him?"

"No."

"What did he look like?"

"Man about sixty. Thin, white hair, small moustache, poorly dressed."

"Did you look for papers of any kind on him that might identify him?"

"Yes, but whoever killed him had taken care of that. His wallet was gone, if he carried one, and there wasn't a thing in his pockets."

some of you can help identify the dead man."

AFTER Thorny said, "Well, I'll be damned. Seems like just when things begin to come our way, a little something always has to happen."

Susan moved over next to Erich. He took her hand. "Don't worry, Julie," he said. "We'll get this straightened out."

"You do!" Thorny cried. "A couple of weeks ago Susan and Erich found some short cigarette butts down by the boathouse. We examined them and each one had a small hole in it. As though it had been smoke short by the use of a toothpick. Julie hesitated and looked momentarily around the room. "I happened to remember then that the old night watchman at father's factory used to do that."

Thorny cried, "You didn't say anything to me!"

"We thought you had enough to worry about," Julie said.

"I sure hope you're wrong," Thorny said heavily. "You know how people here jump to conclusions. They'd say Erich killed the night watchman because he knew your father was guilty of Corbo's death."

"That's what worries me," Julie said.

"Don't say anything about your suspicions," Thorny warned. "They heard the squeal of brakes as the ambulance stopped at the Black Undertaking Parlor across the street."

"I'm going over and see what they found out," Thorny said. "A few minutes later he was back with the Constable at his side. From the doorway the Constable said cheerfully, 'Well, Black identified the dead man all right. Used to work with him at the Scarbrough factory. He was the night watchman there. . . .'"

Nazi Balkan Escape Road Is Rocky

P. T. A. News

Sugar Grove, Oct. 3.—The first meeting of the Sugar Grove P. T. A. was held in the school auditorium Monday evening with the president Mrs. Travers Stohlberg, presiding. The meeting opened with the singing of America the Beautiful, with Miss Doris Engstrom, pianist. Rev. Atkins, pastor of the Chandeliers Valley United Brethren church conducted the devotions. Mrs. Gerald Miller gave the secretary's report and Mrs. Ernest Hultberg, the treasurer's report. Mrs. Swanson reported for the membership committee. Miss Braun the school lunch and Mrs. Haight the program. A report was read from Mrs. Briggs, on the Christian Education Council. Rev. Wallace Johnson has taken the place of Rev. Perrin as chairman of the curriculum committee and classes will begin next Friday. The plans for school lunches were left to a committee to confer with the board of education.

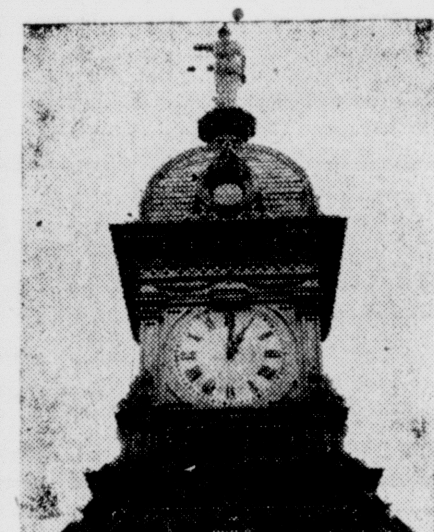

The group voted to help secure cups for the home economics house. After discussion it was decided to have meetings in November and December and possibly each month in place of the four meetings a year. The group also voted to sponsor a recreational program for the young people. Mrs. John Anderson welcomed Prin. Allan Fran., who in turn introduced the other teachers. Mrs. Flora Plediger, Miss Mabel Reese, Miss Velma Braun, Mrs. Harriett Northrop, Miss Doris Engstrom, Rev. Kenneth Berlin, and Everett Landin. Mr. Frank announced that Mrs. Gerald Rhodes who has been ill expected to assume her duties as teacher of the seventh and eighth grades within a few weeks. Mrs. Kenneth Haight announced the program, two numbers by a mixed quartet. Doris Norbeck, Louise Bruce, Serril Brown and Fred Anderson. Mrs. Haight in announcing the Old Fashioned Bee gave an appropriate reading.

The contestants were chosen from high school and the seventh and eighth grades of Chandeliers Valley and Sugar Grove and adults from both communities: Mrs. Stohlberg, Mrs. Grace Brown, Mrs. Genevieve Allen, Mrs. Frank Dorn, Mrs. Donald Nuttall, Mrs. John Anderson and Mrs. Gerald Miller, Paul Mahan, Ray Sanders, Evelyn and Dorothy Hodges, Gladys Abbott and Doris and June Norbeck. Mrs. A. A. Grant, Mrs. Haight, Everett Landin and Delmar Mickelson acted as officials. Evelyn Hodges won the laurels for the school and Mrs. Stohlberg was the winner with Mrs. Miller as runner up. The group adjourned to the

SNACKS CUT ACCIDENTS
Reduction of accident rates from 30 to 50 per cent in many war plants can be traced directly to the installation of up-to-date programs of in-plant feeding on the mid-shift and to the practice of providing "snacks" between meals, according to the War Food Administration. The practice has also cut absenteeism and stepped up production.

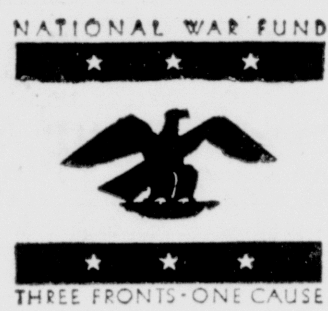

Yugoslavia formerly was the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes. It includes some 96,134 square miles, and had a prewar population of about 14,000,000.

Everybody reads the Times-Mirror.

One for All and All for One

This is one of a series of articles describing the work of the various welfare agencies of Warren County. It is written in connection with the Warren County United War Fund campaign for $88,700. $49,000 of this total (the largest quota in any drive in a quarter of a century) remains in Warren County.

Girl Scouts

By JEANNE B. LOPEZ

A year ago, appeal was made in the Warren County War Fund campaign for support of the 492 Girl Scouts whose organization depended on the interest of local citizens. This year, the Girl Scouts are proud to state that their membership has grown to 771 enrolled. An adult membership of 332 brings the total number of Girl Scouts to 1003.

There are approximately 10,000 homes in Warren county and the number of homes directly benefited by Girl Scouting is approximately one in each ten. The rapid growth of this organization is evidence alone of its importance. The demand for troops in communities where there are none now and for more troops in towns where Girl Scouting is already established is loud and insistent.

The executive secretary and an office secretary have been employed by the Warren County Girl Scout Council. However, in order to meet the demand for the organization of new groups and for supervision of the increased number already established, it will be necessary to secure the services of a field secretary in the immediate future.

It is taken for granted that adults realize the importance of constructive interests for young people. However, some most pertinent remarks on this subject have come from the young people themselves. A group of girls were given a talk in which it was explained that the money to carry on Girl Scouting is given by the general public. They were asked whether or not they felt that it is worth while to spend a great deal of money each year to provide Girl Scouting—and why. Their answers demand attention:

"A Girl Scout learns how to get along with other people. She learns to be courteous."

"Girl Scouting teaches us things that school doesn't teach. We learn to help ourselves and others."

"It helps you to help your mother."

These answers came from the ten-year-olds. The eleven-year-old Girl Scouts found that "Scouting teaches us to like vegetables we never liked before." "It gives you a better chance to be an all-around girl."

The 13- and 14-year-old Scouts concerned themselves with matters of wider scope.

"If Girl Scouts all over the world work together and become better acquainted with each other, it will mean not only a grand step for the children, but it will be a real help toward keeping peace a living thing."

"The continuance of Girl Scouting is imperative because in the program are embodied the ideals of free government."

Your donation to the Warren County War Fund is a donation to these youngsters who are our Girl Scouts. What better reasons for giving could you wish than the answers they have given?

FARM NEWS

Dairy Barns Need Proper Ventilation

Many dairy farmers should be planning to improve the ventilation of their dairy barns and stables if they wish to maintain healthy herds and produce milk with a clean flavor. Plans for installing a system of ventilation that takes moisture out of the barn, keeps air sweet and clean, avoids drafts on the cows, and keeps the temperature above freezing.

The digestive process of dairy cattle produces considerable heat, which causes a cow to cooze enough moisture through the skin and lungs to cover her stall floor with about three-sixteenths of an inch deep in one day. When the barn is poorly ventilated, stable air becomes saturated with moisture, and the lack of evaporation raises body temperature. Under these conditions cows refuse to eat.

In poorly ventilated barns, moisture condenses on walls, ceilings and around hay chutes, causing rotting of barn timbers and feed spoilage. Air laden with barn odors gives the milk a characteristic smell.

A properly planned ventilation system changes the air every few minutes, removing moisture-laden air before it cools and condenses. The air is removed near the barn floor, so that warm air near the ceiling is retained, keeping the barn from getting too cold.

The absence of drafts aids in keeping dairy cattle healthy. The county agent says he has plans at his office for installing a good system of ventilation for any dairy barn or stable. It provides a series of intake openings without causing drafts and outlet flue that will help keep cows at a temperature which is healthful for them in winter.

Watch For Moth In Stored Grains Farmers of Warren county are urged to keep a close watch on stored grain, particularly recently threshed wheat, for the Angoumois grain moth, in an announcement made by County Agent Fritz.

If the top layer of the stored wheat molds, and shows evidence of heat there is every reason to believe the moth has infested the grain, he says. Granaries and storage bins which are found to be infested should be fumigated before cold weather arrives.

Johnny Salamon, who enlisted in the Army Air Force, C. A. A. Flight Instructor program December 15, 1942, has returned to Warren and is now here on an assignment with the Navy Inspection Service at the branch office at the Struthers Wells. He completed his secondary training at Thiel College, Greenville, Cross-Country at Rochester, N. Y., and Link Instrument at Endicott, N. Y. Later the Air Force decided that the War Service Pilot Training had served its purpose and he was discharged with all other enlisted men subject to call. It will be remembered that Johnny took his preliminary flying instructions with "Slip" King at the Warren airport back in 1935. He says experience gained flying out of small airports in the area was a great help while in the service.

Youngsville On V-Day Will Be a Desert

Youngsville, Oct. 4—At the regular council meeting held Monday evening in the council room it was moved that notices should be given to all tap rooms or places where alcoholic beverages are sold within the borough that the bars should be closed for twenty-four hours on V-Day. At the request of water consumers there have been an unusual number of water meters checked when bills were unusually large. At the council it was decided to make a dollar charge for checking meters which had been previously checked within two years. Meters are usually accurate and to check a large number at any period requires much time.

A request was sent to the Electric Company to have additional street lights placed on Railroad street, West Main street and Second street. Requests for these particular lights have been made by residents of the above named streets.

The Park committee reported that some work was needed in Island Park. The recommendation was made that several trees which were nearly dead and might prove a menace by falling, should be taken down. They also suggested that grading be done. The Council approved the suggestion and requested that the work be done if possible this autumn.

FAIR BOARD MEET

At last week's meeting of the Youngsville Community Fair Board reports given showed that this fair was very successful both in attendance and in the financial returns. Though no entrance fee for the grounds is charged, the totals show the fair closed with a balance on the proper side and the Fair Association will have some funds to begin preparation for next season's fair.

At the meeting it was decided, unless something occurred to make it impossible, that the fair would be held next year as this during the week of Labor Day with the probable dates Sept. 6th, 7th and 8th.

BOXES FOR SERVICE MEN

A large number of boxes for boys overseas were packed Monday evening by Youngsville Service Club. Each box contained a box of air mail stationery, a fruit cake, a box of caramel candy, a Christmas card and Christmas wrappings.

Borough In Dutch With OPA Relative To Equipment Rental

President Forest Waite last evening pointed out to the Town Council that the OPA doesn't like the rate schedule set up by the Borough for the rental of equipment. He stated that the price schedule did not conform to the OPA established rate and that changes would have to be made. The Council just recently revamped its scale of rental figures and a committee of three, Klinefelter, Carlson and Painter was named to get the prices right with the OPA.

Warren borough last month redeemed another $4000 worth of bonds and the outstanding indebtedness was again whittled down. The bonds redeemed were those of the issue of 1935. The financial report showed the borough now has in the general fund $86,670.15; in the permanent fund $7,296.16; sanitary sewer fund $5,544.60; in the sinking fund $5,247.25 and in the Park fund $794.64. It was also reported that $145,785.30 had been received from the 1944 tax schedule.

Mr. Krebs of the Finance committee also suggested that the Warren Public Library was in financial difficulties and that Council soon might be asked for a little more money.

At the last meeting of council it was reported that two rod lines crossed Lincoln avenue, east of Grant street, and interfered with the fire department reaching houses on that street. It was pointed out last night that the city had never accepted that street hence no action was taken.

Twenty-one arrests were reported last month with fines amounting to $287.75, most of which were derived from traffic violations. Of this amount $239 was collected.

The parking meters showed a distinct falling off during the month only 787.52 having been collected, as against the sum of $976.36 for the same period last year.

Several police officers who have been unable to take vacations due to the manpower shortage in the police department will be given extra pay in lieu of a vacation.

It was brought out that the Borough has no policy relative to vacations and a committee composed of Messrs Krebs, Rice and Stone will arrange such a program and report.

W. Howard Alexander was again elected as a member of the Warren Civil Service Commission as his term had expired.

The August fire report showed nine calls with a loss of 1500 and the September report showed 13 calls with a loss of $50,000. Most of this loss was incurred in the fire at the United Refinery.

The scales turned in $26.40 during September and the airport added $42.70 to the borough funds.

The Park committee reported the playground been stored for the winter; that several trees had been trimmed and much other work done.

The Howe Resurfacing Company was awarded the contract for the resurfacing of the main runway at the airport at a cost of 14.7 cents per square foot.

Revision of the By-Laws of the borough will be undertaken by a committee composed of Truesler, Miller and Erickson.

Burgess Steber urged Councilmen to read the report made by the Committee of Social Agencies. It is lengthy but is said to contain much of interest. He also suggested that the matter of sick leave for borough employees be given attention as he felt that in some instances it had been flagrantly abused.

The Burgess also drew attention to the fact that Fire Chief Albaugh had conferred with him relative to the burning of rubbish about the city. Fires are forbidden in the fire zone but the Fire Chief has suggested that an ordinance be passed forbidding bon fires any place in the borough as a safety measure.

Mr. Steber also suggested that an investigation be made of the pin ball machines in the borough with a view of levying a tax upon them. The matter was referred to the ordinance committee.

The matter of replacing a cross walk at an ally leading off Division street came in for comment. Solicitor Blackman ruled the alley is private property and that the borough has no responsibility for the construction of a walk.

Vote To Buy Lands For New Disposal Plant

At the Town Council meeting held last evening action was taken which will result in the securing of a site for the new sewage treatment plant and for the rights of way by which the interceptor sewers can be laid to the plant. The site is located in Pleasant township on the shore of the Allegheny river and it comprises seven and one-half acres of land most admirably situated for a plant such as planned. The vote to purchase the land followed a report made by Chairman Roy Krebs, of the special committee which had been appointed to confer with the property owners relative to the purchase of the site. Mr. Krebs reported that the price set for the land was $6000 and he moved that the purchase be made. A unanimous vote by council authorized the purchase.

Work of erecting the treatment plant will not be undertaken until after the war when material needed in the construction can be secured and it is anticipated that the cost will be somewhere between $150,000 and $200,000. Plans for the plant are being prepared by a firm of Pittsburgh specialists in the designing of such plants. The firm has made plans for the entire sewage system in the city and most of the necessary construction has been completed under WPA and other alphabetical arrangements.

Sewers have been completed from upper Conewango avenue section and from the Ninth ward section to the foot of Oak street. Here the interceptors merge. Interceptor lines have also been built from the upper Market street section which will care for all sewage east of the Carver House to the Conewango creek. This interception terminates now at the foot of Market street. West of the Carver House another interceptor carries the sewage to a point on Pine street. Arrangements to complete the interceptors for east side and Market street interceptors to merge on the island after crossing the Conewango Creek and the mill race.

A pump house will be installed on the island and the sewage will be pumped across the Allegheny river to the South Side. This will raise the sewage so that it will flow by gravity to the treatment plant the big sewer passing under the railroad tracks. From Pine street another pump will carry the sewage across the river to the treatment plant.

When completed all sewage from Warren borough will be taken out of the river and disposed of at the treatment plant. This arrangement will add considerable to the cost of the operation of the borough but will give the city one of the most efficient sewage systems to be found in the country.

Youngsville is using such a plant at the present time and the effect on the waters of the Broekensaw is most noticeable.

General Dwight D. Eisenhower—the military and political situation inside the country were too unsettled. Now, however, he is said to be ready to assume full governmental powers with the lifting of Eisenhower controls.

It is not certain here whether the situation in southwestern France may complicate things. Reports on the force of irregular fighters say they are centered around Perpignan, France, a town on the Spanish border which had a large part in aiding the flight of Spanish Loyalist refugees from Franco's Spain after the civil war.

SEN. BALL DECLARES ISSUES NOT CLARIFIED

St. Paul, Oct. 5.—(P)—Senator Joseph H. Ball, Minnesota Republican, feels that neither Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican candidate for president, nor President Roosevelt has clearly stated his position on the question vital to the problem of preventing future wars.

He said so last night in a broadcast address amplifying and repeating his earlier statement that he could not campaign for Dewey at this time because of doubts that would fight vigorously for a foreign policy which will offer a real hope of preventing world war III.

Other South Africans drove to positions on the east slopes of Monte Vigese, 3,500-foot peak.

Youngest Son Killed In War

Cpl. Harry Keith Wolfe, 20, youngest of the five sons of Joseph and Bertha Wolfe of Trueman and the last to take up arms, was reported killed in action in France, August 31, according to a telegram from the War Department to his mother, received Sept. 20.

Cpl. Wolfe was a first aid man in an infantry unit. On the 31st Allied forces hurried through the Argonne Forest and reached Sedan, and it may have been in this drive that he lost his life.

The last letter Mrs. Wolfe received from her son was a V-mail dated August 25th. He had been sent to France some time after D-Day and in an earlier letter told his mother that he had some unforgettable experience. His address was then changed to A. P. O. 2, Med. Det. 23rd Inf. and he was made Cpl. Technician and served as aid man for the 23rd Infantry.

Cpl. Wolfe was inducted into the army in June, 1943, and received training in Camp Croft, S. C. Last December he was shipped across the Atlantic, landing in England. He was born Oct. 16, 1923, at Kellerville, Forest county. In addition to his parents, he leaves the following brothers and one sister: Staff Sgt. Joseph J. Wolfe, Marine Corps veteran of Tarawa, who is now at San Diego, Calif.

Sgt. Mark Wolfe, the oldest of five who received an honorable medical discharge from the Army last March and now resides in Warren.

Staff Sgt. Randall O. Wolfe, in the Army's 77th Division which fought on Guam.

Mrs. L. L. Williams, Kane.

Farm Calendar

Ventilate Barns

To maintain healthy herds and produce milk with a clean flavor, many dairymen should plan to improve the ventilation of their dairy barns and stables, say dairy extension specialists of the Pennsylvania State College. Plans are available from county agricultural extension offices.

Control Grain Moth

Grainaries and storage bins infested with Angoumois grain moth should be fumigated before cold weather arrives. All cracks should be made tight, and carbon bisulphide placed in shallow tins on the surface of the grain, say extension entomologists of the Pennsylvania State College.

Set Bait Stations

Control of meadow mice and pine mice in orchards is best done with bait stations. Extension fruit specialists of the Pennsylvania State College suggest bait stations now over runways of the mice, and later the poison bait can be placed in them to kill the pests.

Prevent Farm Fires

Statistics at the Pennsylvania State College find that a farm fire occurs for every 15 minutes of every day throughout the year. Most of these can be avoided if farmers observe Fire Prevention Week, not once, but every week.

Increase Lamb Crop

The lambing percentage of ewes is increased 10 to 15 per cent by weaning lambs and giving the ewes a rest before the breeding season, remind Penn State livestock specialists. Also give them some fresh pasture or a little grain.

Clean Gardens Now

Thorough cleaning of gardens now will help control vegetable diseases next year, according to Penn State plant pathologist. Discard overwinter in trash.

VICTORY FOODS

Co-operating with the War Food Administration, grocers all over the country will seek to stimulate the sale of vegetables currently in plentiful supply, by displaying posters. Consumers are expected to benefit greatly by knowing from month to month the foods that are cheapest and most plentiful, and stimulation of purchasing will at the same time prevent possible waste of such foods.
